

Credit Applications – How to Develop One That Works

WEBINAR

Wednesday, September 13, 2017
10 am - 11:00 am CT (11am-12:00pm ET)

About the Webinar

Do you know that with the proper credit application you can both help avoid third party collections and, if necessary, help your agency if an account does have to be placed? Why not do all you can up front to circumvent potential problems by attending this webinar and learning how to improve your application?

In this webinar, Todd Fierstein will explain what should and shouldn't be on your application, the importance of getting updated credit applications from your customers, important and correct verbiage and the best questions to ask on your application. Also learn the answer to this question: "Why do I need a credit application at all!?"

During this 60-minute webinar you will learn:

- How to develop a credit application that protects your company and asks the right questions to make more informed credit decisions.
- How the credit application actually is a multifunctional document
- How to get current customers to give you updated information
