Wednesday, August 9, 2017

10 am - 10:30 am CT

Cost: No Charge

About the Webinar

Designed by fellow credit professionals, NACM's Certification Program has defined and established standards in the demanding field of credit. NACM's various levels of certification continue to provide a competitive advantage and recognition to individuals as they acquire special expertise in the field of credit through the dynamic certification process.

Join Ben Noury, the Director of Education Services at NACM, and learn how to get started on the path, or take the next step, toward earning your CBA, CBF, CCRA or CCE certification. Don't miss this opportunity to further your education and your career.

During this 30-min complimentary webinar, you will:

- Discover the benefits of earning a NACM Certification.
- Get an in depth glimpse into the CBA, CBF, CCRA and CCE Certifications.
- Learn where and how to get started.
- Be able to ask questions from those who know the process the best.
